

DENNIS D. KEE JR.

At Buxbaum Loggia, Dennis Kee is a Consultant responsible for the operational aspects of compliance audits. Additional responsibilities include information technology structure, security and compliance, expert witness testimony and settlement evaluations.

Education: IT Program and Development Certificates
Claim Adjustment and Investigation Courses
Corporate Management Training;
Kepner Tregoe, TQM (Total Quality Management),
Department of Defense Visual Information Management
Member, ARIAS U.S.

Experience:

2010 - Present *Consultant & Chief Information Security Officer –
Buxbaum, Loggia & Associates, Inc.*

Responsible for technical operations, security and IT structure. Consultant for Casualty and Property claims, operational and underwriting reviews.

2017 – 2018 Director of Data Operations - Acentec

Responsible for technical operations specializing in HIPAA compliance and IT server hosting.

2005 – 2016 Network Manager Pacwest - Time Warner Cable Charter Communications

Managed network engineering team and designed and oversaw Access Network migration for Comcast and Adelphia networks into Time Warner network. Managed successful launch of IPTV (internet protocol television), VOIP, ADSG (advanced DOCSIS set-top gateway) and VOD (video on demand) into Access network.

1998 – 2005 Regional Service Manager, West Region - Adelphia

In charge of launching internet service to all legacy Comcast and Century properties in California. Managed installation, service, maintenance, and tech support. Designed and managed 24-hour network operations and provisioning center for West Coast.

Industry Activities:

Insurance and Reinsurance Legacy Association, United Kingdom

Community Service:

FBI InfraGard: Critical Infrastructure Protection, Communications
SCTE (Society of Cable Telecommunications Engineers)

Military:

U.S. Air Force, Technical Sergeant (Retired)
Active 1987-1991
Reserves 1991-2008
American Legion (Hollywood Chapter); Member of Executive Committee